The Kids Theme

We will spend the first week of May to appreciate the female role models in their lives for Mother's Day.

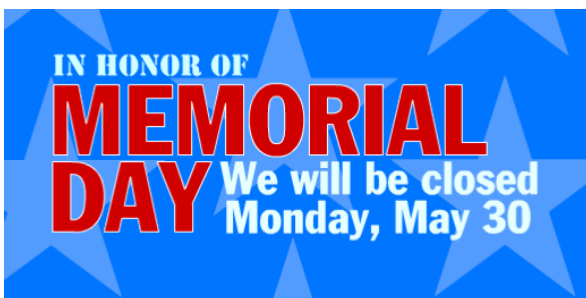

HERE'S THE NEWS

The weather is heating up so we are outside for longer periods of time so bring light jackets and bug repellent for nature walks and other outdoor fun.

A note to parents from Miss Julie,
Center Director

As we celebrate National Teachers Day and with Mother's & Father's Day around the corner - we acknowledge every family is different so we are focusing on role models in our friend's lives. A role model is a person whose serves as an example by influencing others. For many children, the most important role models are their parents and caregivers. Children look up to a variety of role models to help shape how they behave in school, relationships or when making difficult decisions. Children also look up to other relatives, teachers and peers. Here are some discussions we are having as role models in your child's life and looking for positive qualities:

- Identifying what qualities they admire
- Looking for examples of positive qualities and being a good influence on others
- Talking about people you look up to for guidance and inspiration
- Remembering people make mistakes and it is important to apologize and to learn from our mistakes
- Giving examples of positive and healthy ways to handle situations
